The U.S. Mission in Kabul is seeking eligible and qualified applicants for the position of Information Assistant with Public Affairs Section

NOTE: Due to the high volume of applications received, we will only contact applicants who are being considered. Thank you for your understanding.

BASIC FUNCTION OF POSITION

Under the direct supervision of the LE Staff Information Specialist (Country Media Advisor), the general supervision of the Information Officer and the overall guidance of the Public Affairs Counselor, the information assistant/analyst bears responsibility for monitoring and analyzing the country's media climate through monitoring print and broadcast media, to gauge the state of debate on topics of vital interest to the United States in Afghanistan, including how the U.S. is perceived and portrayed by various political and public opinion leaders, the goals, aims, and strategies of Afghan political parties, and public perception of U.S. policy. Of special focus are local current affairs, issues concerning bilateral relations between Afghanistan and the United States, and matters concerning Afghanistan's relationship with its neighbors and the international community. Analyzes the general trend on local media, provides advice to PAS and Embassy senior leadership in design of proactive messaging, and makes recommendations to ensure that U.S. foreign policy priorities are clearly conveyed in local and international media. Provides the full range of press events, producing regular analysis summaries and in-depth focus pieces on specific topics. Develops and maintains contacts with Afghan media outlets and their owners, commentators, analysts, thought leaders and senior government officials, and others essential to producing accurate and timely analysis. Translates for the COM and other senior Embassy official during press conferences and high-level meetings with a wide range of contacts, including, but not limited to, civil society leaders, public opinion influencers, political contacts, and GIRA officials. Performs other duties as assigned.
